

The Daughters of Deganawida:

Enacting the Great Law and Reclaiming our Nations

Issued at Council Fire on Tuesday, July 4, 2023

We, the clan mothers of fourteen original nations, have banished the genocidal Catholic, Anglican, and United churches from our lands across “Canada”. We will soon hold reclamation rites in these churches and seize them according to the Great Law and the cry of our murdered children.

So now, according to our secret teachings and the common soul that binds all living creatures, we offer these words to bring understanding about the importance of what we do and how it fulfills the prophecy given to us by the great Peacemaker Deganawida long ago.

Before the European invasion assaulted and destroyed so many of our people, Deganawida came among us from the Huron people to unite our warring tribes into the Six Nations. And he gave us the Great Law to guide us through the storm that was coming.

Deganawida taught us that a white, two-headed serpent would come from the east to deceive and conquer us. One of the heads of the serpent would appear friendly and fool us with peaceful words, but the other head would hate and curse us, and try to kill us.

This two-headed serpent has done the same thing to indigenous people like ours in Europe and around the world for centuries. The serpent's symbol is a cross on which is impaled a righteous man who the serpent tortures but pretends to love: a man who was a brother of Deganawida. The serpent can do nothing but lie and destroy while speaking of peace and love, for that is its crazy nature. And all that it destroys becomes as two minded and crazy as itself.

Deganawida knew the nature of this deceiving monster and prepared us to fight it, even though he knew that most of our people would be destroyed by it and be changed into its likeness. He gave us the Two Row Wampum to preserve the Great Law that binds our nations in one mind and heart.

Deganawida also told us to reach out to the sick, two-headed slaves of the serpent and cure them of their craziness by bringing them into the Great Law. But the more we tried to do that, the more the serpent won.

We have consulted Deganawida's spirit for an answer and a way to destroy the serpent and all who serve it. Deganawida has said to us these words:

“My beloved friends, only you can judge what is the right path to follow to remain who you are. It is in your nature to embrace all creatures with respect and equality, so I did not ask you to do anything besides offer to the crazy ones a way out of their madness. You had to learn for yourselves that it is impossible to expect them to change their two-headed nature.

“Do not try to understand these crazy people or to be understood by them, for they are ruled by the deceiving serpent and will try to corrupt you. Instead, wait for the judgement the serpent has brought upon itself, for its destruction is coming. One day soon its evil will be seen even by its slaves, but they are too much a part of the serpent to fight it or kill it.

“The serpent will die only when a great sacred light appears among you from out of the north. That time is close. I will return with the light to destroy the serpent. And I will be helped by one of the white people who has never been owned by the serpent. He has reclaimed his Eagle spirit and is already among you. With his strong voice he has been guiding the sacred light to the heart of the serpent to kill it.

“This white man has been chosen through eternity to fight the serpent and he has done so in many of his lifetimes. Seek out and help that white Eagle and with him teach your people to separate themselves from the lying serpent and its slaves and take back all they have stolen from you.

“In unity with the white Eagle, reclaim and redeem the lands the serpent has stolen, and expel the worshippers of the serpent from among you. At the moment of the serpent’s destruction, creation will be reborn and recovered by all the Great Spirit’s children. They shall all stand in the Great Law and the perfect oneness of creation.”

We understand from Deganawida’s words and prophecy that the two-headed serpent is called Vatican, which means “magical serpent” in the ancient Etruscan language of Italy. This Vatican has established and led all the other “Christian” churches to destroy our people and anyone who opposes it, like the white Eagle. That white brother is Eagle Strong Voice Kevin Annett. This man was recognized as our prophesied white ally and given his name Gano Gaisheaway GaiKeedo, Eagle Strong Voice, by one of our family: Whispers Wind, who was the hereditary Crane Clan elder of the Anishinaabe-Ojibwe people. He adopted Eagle Strong Voice into our family in the spring of 2006 where the rivers meet in Winnipeg.

Eagle Strong Voice then proved the truth of Deganawida's prophecy about him when he went alone to the heart of the Vatican serpent in Rome in October 2009 and held a sacred expulsion and banishment ceremony there, outside the Vatican. His action brought down the serpent's chief Roman servant called Benedict and made the serpent retreat.

The serpent and its churches have tried to kill the heart of Eagle Strong Voice, but they have not stopped him, for he stands in the Great Law and its power. So now he is leading those few of his people who are able break from the serpent into a new nation called the Republic of Kanata, based on the Great Law and Two Row Wampum, which is part of Kanata's flag.

As this prophecy has unfolded, Eagle Strong Voice has acted with our authority as a member of our family in our common battle to destroy the serpent. Together, we are creating the new nation of all our people called Kanata, which in our Haudenosaunee language means "Where the people sit as one at the great council fire."

We establish this nation as a sign of the new creation, as the two headed serpent and its murderous churches collapse and are destroyed by Deganawida and the sacred light from the northern heavens.

This prophecy is why we have banished the serpent's Catholic, Anglican, and United churches from our lands and are reclaiming their buildings and wealth to redress their terrible murder of our children and the genocide of our people. We do so in anticipation of Deganawida's return and the destruction of the society and world the serpent has made.

All this is according to the Great Law of creation, as witnessed by we, the Daughters of Deganawida, on the Fourth Day of July in the year 2023.
