

Introductory Quotes on Backgrounds of Refracted Light Rays...

The basic message of every authentic Light Being who has blessed this earth is very simple, yet very profound:

There is nothing higher than you.

Your Spirit is one with Source, Your Creator.

You already know everything.

No need for lessons.

You are here for the experience.

You have free choice and free will.

The point of power is right NOW.

"If you want Purpose in your life, then you don't focus on the results...
You only focus on what you are inspired and excited to do."

"Each and every day we will choose and we will choose and we will choose from each moment of every day and each second of every day."

"We will choose what we prefer, or we will not, and that's that."

"Only choose what you prefer and the outcomes will be unbelievable."

"...We're in a body that is convinced it's going to get something done.

It's convinced it's going to drive the hammer down on the nail, and it hinders natural spiritual synchronicity, and once you get used to trusting your highest excitement, your highest joy, you'll see your life live at a far higher frequency and synchronization, and all the things that you desire your higher mind has put here for you...higher consciousness, will just start unfolding immediately.

All the people will show up in the time they are supposed to, all the things will happen in the time they are supposed to..."

"Sovereignty and Free Will Choice for a happy, fulfilling, creative and expansive life experience is the template humanity was created in,
and this is the support offered by Source Representatives flowing with 100% Light on earth.

Everything is potentially a universe you create every waking second..."

"Peaceful neutrality is the spirit's natural state."

"Duality exists as an experience...
for those who choose."

"You are unconditionally loved beyond your wildest imagination."

"The more of your light, your spirit, your body holds,
the more inner gifts awaken."

"Ascension is one of my core purposes here to make sure we start learning how to use some real simple activities that make us ascend, if you like to use that term. My belief is that we need to reduce how we use our mind to direct our life. So, the inner work that I believe needs to occur for all of us to get this accelerated, in my opinion, would be to use your highest excitement! Use your highest joy, use your highest awesomeness and let your soul, as Sting would say, be your guide. And, you'll watch the synchronicity of your life change tremendously."

"...the information I send is going to be received through the harmonics of my voice. And although the words will have an interpretation, from my perspective, they are very limited compared to the harmonics that transfer the information.

With great respect and appreciation, the best way to receive the information is just to breathe through your heart center and we will be able to communicate much freer, and the information will flow much freer..."

A harmonic journey...

During the podcasts below, pure Source energy is coming through the vocal harmonics that you hear...it also comes through a recording, if you purposely intend to receive it...

Listening from your heart is the way to gain the greatest value from both the information and harmonics...
