HARD NEWS      Tara, Rama – T, R      •      •

R: spoke to Katrina vanden Heuval; her remarks:

- the stories from the District of Criminals about their tax cuts are nothing more than ways to take us the people to the camps and fill their pockets with the ill gotten gains that have been going on for 13,000 years
- the real story is about going from 12 strands of DNA down to 2 of and here we are!
- the madness in the West Wing that we would not want to be a part of: the staffers and people in the WW not the way it was when the Obamas were there – it's madness and the blind headlong rush into the fake story called "The End Times"

- she talked of weird stories out there – somehow the Grumpis seen as “successful” -
  - nothing successful about this criminal going to meet Pres XI – don’t underestimate XI or the Russian Bear who has been around for 500 years
    - from K: Grump is walking right into the body bag: it’s about them exiting this dimension
- The whole story is about misqualified energies – the fallen angels with the fallen human ego got in the way of our divinity and our true mission; there was the veil too
  - from K: we are in the twinkling of an eye away from how this can change

T: we agreed with Mother to do the experiment; we also agreed with Mother about having free will choice; we also co-created with Mother the space, the place where the experiment would take place, and that co-creation is what we are all working on understanding –

- that we, co-creator gods and goddesses, co-created with Mother the entire Universe of Nabadon, and she is the source of All That Is – this time/space continuum called Nabadon which is a polar universe: the other 6 super universes are in Unity consciousness, a cosmic consciousness which is higher than what we talk about
- What does “we agreed to” mean? We agreed to be responsible as a WHOLE OF HUMANITY:
  - we all agreed that a harm done to ONE of us is done to all of us. Also, as one is helped, all are helped –
    - as we agreed to do something and we have learned it and actually make it part of our lives, all are helped.
    - for instance, a small piece of knowledge that we have eg, a vegan lifestyle and diet is the highest good for all concerned, and we make it part of our life, it helps ALL OF US – AND THAT IS HUGE!

R: as we were 12th Dimensional beings and immortals, we created planets, suns which are created intelligent beings in their own right that we can communicate with . . .

T: and starting the agriculture business was the beginning of the end of our relationship with nature – we never needed to go hunting for animal food

R: the elven lady [Lianera] explained to him that when Atlantis sank, the clouds, the dust, the ash from the explosion of the crystals was so much, it took quite a few years for the sun to break through; it was nuclear winter and this is when we started eating animals. Sabre toothed tigers, woolly mammoths roamed the planet

- There was a polar shift – in Antarctica, there was a giant forest that went for thousands and thousands of miles - R relates to that story, as he was Treebeard, one of the shepherds of the trees – the trees have consciousness: look at the aspen tree and its roots – the shoots are from that one tree
- this ties into Paul Stamis, the mushroom man, and what he has discovered about the consciousness of plants, and the roots of mushrooms and other living things. Go to Bioneers website, and look up Paul Stamis, the mushroom man
- Aspen trees are one root with all kinds of shoots – it is why we call them “Standing Nations”
- We lost our way in the garden and went to the mass production of food even in the Mesopotamian Valley
- the Anthropological society does bio dynamic gardening: use the nature of the soil, the nature of the climate, the nature of the plants that grow and how they fit together - don’t just grow anything for 100s of feet
  - as you grow roses and eat the rose petals with salads, and grow garlic with the roses; the roses makes the garlic sweet and the garlic keeps the bugs off the roses
  - those who started Findhorn in northern Scotland: they were guided by the angels and the fairies – integrated sound, colour, vibration, all the different kingdoms, they grew the largest of everything: strawberries, cantelopes – everything. They did not lack nutrition because of the attention to nature – they increased

- The entire way of doing economics is a violation of the relationship of nature and nature's god with humanity - "think globally, act locally" as an operating principle got lost and caused desertification, pollution of air and water, etc

Katrina said: there are so many different threads that weave into the story of the Grump-Clinton-Bush crime family that have stolen the elections

T: it was made as a decision by the higher 13 family mafioso who decided who should be in

Katrina said: it is very desperate measures by the dark side to escalate the war between Iran and Hezbollah, and Saudi Arabia sharing intelligence with Israel

- it is all about the criminal organizations in the US called the ABC agencies

Katrina and Dr Steve Cohen – they know Mr Putin and the bigger story, and that he is 500 years in this body – not about nuclear war, but brinkmanship - at a deeper level, this exposes the 13 families who are not from earth – they have invaded and occupied long enough and Mother Earth and the kingdoms are saying Get Out!

R: the goddess comes in and does what she does – no accident that the stories of the defilement of the goddess is coming up right now and will affect how Hollywood re-shapes itself - about the higher ethics of honoring the higher divine masculine, divine feminine with each one of us

Sex is never sex; money is never money

T: Hundreds of trillions of dollars are stashed away, as the Paradise Papers reveal

R: the cover story is about nuclear war and the galactics will not allow this to happen

T: it is still about reducing the number of people

- What T has learned from Dr Vanayk – most people have some form of Lyme Disease - they sprayed some kind of chemical on insects that bite: they all carry Lyme Disease – will get Lyme disease if bitten by one; it's very debilitating to human beings – it's one kind of nuclear holocaust of another kind
- As another sister said, she was bitten by a machine the size of a mosquito – bit her on the back - it was healed using sound, colour, vibrational healing, homeopathics – there are ways of transmuting things that are less than love
- the other nuclear holocaust is removing the original level of high consciousness from the top and replacing it with political infighting – happened in a formal way with the Wright brothers in early 1900s when they decided to create a single control system but make it look like a 2 party system so there seems to be choice: it was the thing Thomas Jefferson feared most – he knew the people who had the money would control the system
  - so for at least 100 years, solid brainwashing and harmful things went on.
  - the 1929 crash – the idea was to make it look like it could not be helped
    - the G 8, the elites withdrew their money out of the US so the market would crash because they did not want to play if the people were getting empowered
  - at the same time, the Queen Mother had sex with Noble Drew Ali who had set up the Moorish Science Temple in the US
  - there was a meeting in Havana, Cuba of all the Americas
    - the Mandate that Noble Drew Ali won at that time was freedom from being under the British Empire for North, South, Central America (America)
  - up to 75-80% of the people on the planet are people of colour – there was no white at one time – it was an experiment that began with the Annuniki had an interest in DNA etc and created a colourless thing and they realized that the melanin is connected to the 12th strand of DNA which is heart – to receive the sun energy into the body is connected to the ability to receive with an open heart. And the ability to receive is intricately connected to

- There is still melanin in the brain even if the skin is white – takes more persistence, discipline and pursuit of knowledge of the truth because the white experimented upon race was done par the reptiles
- the white skin was part of the invasion of the reptiles who called themselves “blue bloods” - they wanted to maintain a purity which was unnatural
  - part of the problem in the pharaonic ages was interbreeding – babies were still born so inbreeding is not good - there is still inbreeding in the mountains of Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas - in the hollers (hollows)
- It cause the degradation of all of the functions of the body mind and spirit – something we are coming into in the Age of Aquarius – we are talking of this for understanding
  - All of the ages are separated into linear time – which has collapsed in on itself
  - Dec 21, 2010 was the actual end of the Mayan calendar – all time is PRESENT – THERE IS NO LINEAR PAST OR LINEAR FUTURE – IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN THAT WAY. We wanted to experiment with time and hence the polarity – the end of polarity is where we’re at
    - Now the Universe of Nebadon has ascended into unity
    - Mother told us we could do the experiment and said it would be wise for us to hold ourselves accountable: work together as a community, and evaluate your behaviours as we go
      - we did not do that and 1/3 of us decided to go to war with the others about 150 billion years ago
- The bird call: 3 Lord Kuthumi – she gives all the names of Kuthumi
  - the nature of the distinguished roles of K – come to the basis of the 3 which is infinite creativity
    - and Lyn shouting all the time: we need expression from the heart – writing, singing, drama, music etc – no more need for war!
- As we get with the program and can access our infinite being of love – and we can do it because time as we knew it is no more – we experience something we, as a collective world, have never felt before – and of course, as all of us are feeling that feeling of freedom is coming
  - This is the most dire threat the dark side could have imagined is that light that is coming – they thought they were smart enough . . .

R: and the moon in Scorpio – discussing it on Moonwise this morning at 28* of Scorpio could be Thor’s hammer for Trum

T: it is thor’s hammer for all of us – the truth of freedom’s holy flame that’s here must be acknowledged by all of us with a little more advance intelligence who are here to help others

- as we acknowledge it, it’s not about our individual egos: it’s called desire-less-ness - we all came in here for the highest good of all concerned. The individual ego is a gift to teach us about the illusion – who does Hollywood best? And where did Hollywood start this revolution – it was with Weinstein – the dark ones said if there is going to be Hollywood, it has to include money, sex and >
- on a larger scale as the coast is clear & the lizards are rounded up, caged and gone – people can come forward and talk of the MK Ultra and the other mind-control games and the other things they got disentangled from – like Marilyn Monroe,
- He asked about Amy Goodman, Democracy Now:
  - Katrina said it has to do with the corporate masters who control how public access radio stations and the FCC who wants to destroy the internet.
  - Around Julian Assange – Julian went after Amy and said he was getting perturbed here –

- Amy was told to ask this question, and he knew what she was doing: she was told and you hang in with the answer or you are out of here. He caught her immediately
- She noticed that Malcolm Ness is SO compromised
  - Stepanie Miller keeps bringing him on her show – she’s compromised totally too
  - any one who is pro hillary is compromised: doesn’t mean they are not good people – it just means don’t want to die
  - and we find it tough when we hear the people we hold up – and they fall – we have reached the point of Bill and Hillary are taking a great fall!
- Gillibrand on the subject of Franken:
  - she said that Clinton should have resigned; not just because of the lady in the blue dress – but because of the MURDER he was responsible for; so was Hillary MASS MURDER
  - Yesterday Nov 15, 2017 was the anniversary of Sarajevo – talked on BBC news and what Madeline Albright and Wesley Clark: they orchestrated and carried out the murder and genocide of millions in eastern Europe
  - It’s a continuous feeding frenzy – those beings are taken into the underground dark Satonian network of dark cities and human bodies are fed to the dragons for dinner. The frenzy for money has a huge pricetag, and the price tag for the rich ones with no heart and no consequences up to this moment:
- that’s why we have been told by Mother and Katrina/Steve – this entire system and its greedy people has to be disposed of. They have misqualified the energy of love for all live to be even to contintue
  - the price of not changing now, every single NOW moment, to the possibility and probabily of our not even having our life force - and the amount of species being destroyed by our way of life does not warrant calling it “life”.

Katrina: they have lost; she also put out a message to please help the messengers to continue, as the tightening of the screws has gone up a notch.

- In order to keep the hope going - bring lots more people to the table – not voting is not an option! The grass roots swelling of making our voice heard is the support system required now.

T: the audio is about the system – she begins by reading what she has transcribed

- Rev Barber and lots of people went to Alabama; he identifies himself as an evangelical yet what he is saying is not evangelical – even the women supporting Roy Moore is not evangelical
- Thom Hartmann last Friday Nov 10th had a commentary:
  - Roy Moore and Doug Jones both have young girls in their past.
  - Roy is accused of sexual encounters in 1979 with a girl of 14 years old
  - 1977–1991 was the time length of his escapades – now 9 accusers have come forward
- Doug Jones the Dem candidate against Roy Moore:
  - has a story of 4 young girls in his past – the ones killed in the church bombing: he was the one who prosecuted the murderer of those girls
- this is not being discussed! It’s about misogyny, rape, murder.
  - It is not the gospel of Christ, but about the gospel of greed, the religions of racism and lies, not the religions of love.

T gives the details of what is in the audio below

Ali Velshi and Stephanie Ruhle: a concise description of what T has just spoken of

Audio: Velshi & Ruhle Nov 18, 2017| Velshi & Ruhle Today MSNBC 11/18/17
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4FA23YrKIGQ>

T: the people R talked to were saying 911, 911, 9aa

- Mueller is connected with Mr Gulen and Erdowan is in bed with the Black Ops to
  - Gulen made his money-
and he has the charter schools
  - Erdowan wants to blame what he did on Gulen, he orchestrated the killing of his own people, and the jailing of journalists
- the same problem: it's the party system – the polarity thing: the Clintons balma

- the way of the higher masters is cooperation, not collusion or competitions
  - as we are going now have to rape pillage and plunder

R: as Master Joda said – we need to unlearn everything

Audio: Hollywood decoded – the deeper meaning of Lord of the Rings Part 2

<https://www.gaia.com/video/jacksons-lord-rings-trilogy-part-2>

As the unexpected journey continues with the Lord of the Rings Trilogy, we witness the rise and fall of the New World Order, as each one of us can practice virtuous leadership and become stewards of a new era.

Jay Dyer and Jay Weidner help us come to understand, that which presents itself as good and evil are not all that they seem to be and the true power to change the world resides within the smallest of forces. The Hobbits' expedition teaches us that simplicity and humility can overcome the daunting forces of darkness. This presentation was originally webcast October 30, 2017.

Instructor/Host: Jay Dyer, Jay Weidner
Video Language: English

T: they brought up the yggdrassil tree AND gift of being able to stay longer on the planet –

R: the elven lady brought up the idea that she / the elves been here since before the flood – and so can we be here for longer on the planet

T: As we choose to enter the womb space of our mother and her beloved, from the place beyond time; between the 4-6th month of our conception and growth in the womb space, we choose the sex we want to be – and it's combined with what we saw before we even conceived ourselves

- Our higher consciousness - in each individual soul – chooses to be there for the good of the whole, not of the individual – and this is the first time on this plane of reality that idea, that cosmic consciousness is reaching the mass consciousness.

R: this is the time the shaman wisdom keepers - eg, the Wise Council of Elders who met those at Standing Rock - Ellis Goldtooth and Chief Archibald – brings in the brotherhoods, sisterhoods, the Ascended Masters and others - THE JUSTICE LEAGUE IS HERE!!

T: There are about 20 million galactics milling around – and another reason for trying to take Amy out is that her energy represents their demise!! Keep the Circle of Support around her! And she is definitely one who is to be on the stage-

R: the 1st version of the X Men – with his telekentic energy, he took out the person who put his mother in the death camp: let's not get angry: send more love

T: what is the difference between this energy and Jesus' energy, or Mother's energy

R: their energy is out of the time-space continuum

- in a polar universe, the energies are swinging back to the Golden Age, the Aquarian Age – the darkness cannot live – removing them resolves the matter of their increasing pain and distress/ "madness" The Kali Yuga is over; all we are seeing is the entrails

In 2004, BBC TV exposed Brett Doster, now Judge Roy Moore's campaign chief, for illegally "caging" Black, Hispanic, and Jewish voters, a crime explained by Bobby Kennedy, Jr. in our film (see clip below), The Best Democracy Money Can Buy. The Palast team got our hands on highly confidential documents from inside the George W. Bush campaign giving "BDoster@GeorgeWBush.org," their Florida chief, one of several secret lists of voters to challenge.

ASTROLOGY RICHARD RI

Astrological Weather Report

RI: Consider the eastern horizon, and consider that the sun has not risen yet; imagine it's ½ hour before sunrise; looking to the east at 27 Scorpio this morning, Mars has already risen at 17 Libra, so at daybreak Mars is 40 * ahead of the sun, higher in the sky.

- Between the horizon and Mars is Jupiter: 10* Scorpio this weekend. Under Jupiter, 5* away is Venus. So Mars, Jupiter and Venus rising in the dawn sky before the sunrise! This sequence of energies starts the morning: Mars is 2 hours ahead of the sun, Jupiter underneath it, and Venus is underneath that.
- Then the sunrise – and behind the sun rising at 19* Sag is Mercury. 9* behind Mercury, Saturn rises at 27* Sag, so 2 hours after the sun rises, Mercury has risen, now Venus is rising.
- Now look at the western horizon and sunset: by the time Mars sets in the west, we have Jupiter Venus, Sun, Mercury, Saturn, we pick up Pluto in Capricorn, then Neptune in Pisces, Chiron in Pisces and Uranus rising shortly after sunset –
- so all the energies hit us during daylight hours: 2 hours before sunrise to 2 hours after sunset – we get the whole sweep of all the energies
- So for the foreseeable future, mars rises first in the eastern sky, the energy of Mars + the energy of the others is driving the energy in the daylight hours and that is why it felt so much more intense over the last month.
- The above Cycle is now done: starting Tuesday more Sagittarian after the new moon

Sun: 7 am EST

Wed: Neptune goes direct

Thurs: Mercury trines Uranus

T: How does RI synthesize what happened over this day?

RI: with moon Conjunct sun in Scorpio so they join the rest in Scorpio!

- Last Tuesday, the moon rose in Libra and moon conjunct Mars was late at night
- the front cutting edge of the transformation process is being led by Mars
- Pluto rises when Mars is in the noon position which gives the Plutonian influence – which is why politics looks like it does – and why the social condition looks as it does – we are smack in the middle of transformation mode

Having blown off some steam so I could relax,

To shutdown or overreact.

Ha ha! Let's see who the winner is this week, Mars square Pluto or Venus trine Neptune! As mentioned in the report, put into context with the other planetary combinations I'm afraid I have to put my bet on the Mars/Pluto. So let's look at the upside of that shall we?

Do you know some things that need to change??? This is actually a 3/4 square that deals more with a change in consciousness (due to the actions taken at the first quarter square last February) than "new" impulses. It can be a time of inner transformation due to "forces" like people, law enforcement, external authorities or partners calling us on our stuff. Hence the mantra, as it can be tempting to dig in our heels, simply shutdown down, or come out fighting rather than objectively looking at the situation and really evolving. May you choose the center path and live your life with beauty, grace, and of course, style!

Carl Boudreau·Thursday, 16 November 2017

<https://www.facebook.com/notes/carl-boudreau/november-2017-jupiter-in-scorpio-and-the-us-natal-chart/10215040243387965/>

My last post examined the global implications of the Jupiter/Scorpio ingress. It suggests that Jupiter's year long transit of Scorpio will bring a time of strenuous economic transformation across the globe.

Jupiter in Scorpio will trigger a global shift in the relationship between individual and collective wealth. It will affect wealth inequality for better or for worse. More specifically, it will trigger a rethinking of tax policy, or the collection of taxes, and their re-distribution by means of the social safety-net, public safety and security, public works projects generally, and so on.

The Jupiter Scorpio ingress chart, like others I've been looking at recently, does not suggest a quick, radical swing from liberal to conservative economic policies or vice versa. But the charts suggest a deeper, more penetrating exploration of the issues. It will likely sour the development of policies that transcend defective policies now in place, or those on the shelf, ready to be implemented.

The chart for the Jupiter/Scorpio ingress appears to reveal a murky, unstable, obstacle-strewn, world economic environment. However, the negatives in this chart are mitigated, by a supportive, protective Mystic Rectangle and leavened by Jupiter's generally softening, uplifting influence.

I have often cast composite charts that combine the US chart and the chart of challenging transits. The resilient US chart seems to triumph easily over adverse transits.

When the data for the US natal chart is combined with challenging transits, the composite chart that results is usually rather promising. So let's take a look at the composite chart for the Jupiter/Scorpio ingress and the US natal chart.

The US chart deserves special attention because it is still true that "as the American economy goes, so goes the global economy." If that's an exaggeration, it's a small one.

So, I cast a composite chart for the Jupiter/Scorpio ingress and the US natal chart. I am delighted to report that the US chart performed well again.

As I explained last time, the Jupiter Scorpio ingress chart is dominated by a Grand Cross. This foretells a year of murky, fluid economic conditions. But the prominent Grand Cross does not necessarily promise negative economic outcomes.

With Jupiter in Scorpio, a major financial sign, economic conditions would, instead, be permeated by options, opportunities and synchronicities that can be used to make the economy perform well enough.

When you combine the Jupiter Scorpio ingress chart with the US natal chart, the Grand Cross in the Jupiter Scorpio ingress chart disappears. A couple of squares remain, but they would be background influences.

In sum, the composite of the Jupiter Scorpio ingress and the US natal chart indicates that economic conditions in the United States will be generally better than they are in the world at large. The absence of the Grand Cross means that the murky, uncertain, unstable, obstacle-rich economic forecast in the globe ingress chart won't apply in the US. Also, given the outsize economic influence of the US, strong economic conditions in the US point to better global economic conditions than the Jupiter Scorpio ingress chart, with its prominent Grand Cross suggests.

Also, the composite chart includes a number of trines, including a loosely structured Grand Trine. The trines, and especially the Grand Trine, indicate a smooth economic environment for the US. But first, a little important background.

The Moon's Nodes crossed onto the Leo/Aquarius axis on May 9, 2017. This transit would continue the deep, transformation of the patterns that govern individual and collective, this time on the level of interpersonal and civil relationships. You might want to review this post \(Sea of Change\) from around the time the Nodes moved onto the Leo/Aquarius axis.

In all honesty, I don't know how we can reliably measure such a thing or what precisely one gains from stating it. But it seems to me that the movement of the Moon's Nodes from the Virgo/Pisces axis to the Leo/Aquarius marked an important moment in the transition from the Piscean Age with its innumerable defective patterns into the Aquarian Age with its reform of old patterns and its creation of new ones.

Given the astrological energies, and themes at play in the charts, it seemed obvious to me that Venus would be playing an important role while the Moon's Nodes were transiting the Leo/Aquarius axis. Last May, I discussed the importance of Venus during the North Node's transit of Leo.

I cast a so-called Venus persona chart for the North Node's Leo ingress. This gave me a better sense of the role Venus would play during the North Node's transit of Leo. It also confirmed my sense that Venus was going to play an important role during the North Nodes transit of Leo.

In technical terms, I progressed the ingress chart's Sun to the place occupied by Venus when the North Node entered Leo. This yielded a Venus persona chart.

If you don't have the time or the inclination to refer back to my previous posts, please take my word for it that this placement of Venus in this persona chart indicates that Venus will play a key transformative role during the North Node's transit of Leo, currently in progress.

In this Venus persona chart, Venus conjoined Mercury, Eris and Uranus fairly closely. All three planets, Mercury/Eris/Venus, made a bundle of squares to a large grouping that included numerous asteroids and the Galactic Center.

The asteroids govern many facets of our societal relationships. The Galactic center governs the force of cosmic purpose, or what amounts to the same thing, the flow of cosmic love and purpose.

This bundle of influences combined would govern the way cosmic will and purpose expressed in our social relationships. Or, what amounts to the same thing in this case, it would govern the values expressed in global worldviews and how well collective values align with cosmic or, Divine values.

The square from Venus/Eris/Uranus tells us that we are in for a thoroughgoing reorganization and transformation of social relationships in all areas at all levels. In other words, while the North Node is in Leo, we can expect an extended period of deep social reform.

The square from the Venus/Eris and Uranus conjunction would trigger conflicts that lead to deep reforms in the way love is or is not expressed in the structures and patterns of our societies. It would trigger global efforts to bring human values, and, thus, social structures and patterns into alignment with cosmic, or Divine, values. In other words, it will bring an era of deep and lasting social reform.

Let us now return to consideration of the composite chart for the Jupiter Scorpio ingress and the US natal chart.

In my opinion the most interesting features of this composite chart are 1) the Grand Trine, 2) a nearly perfect conjunction between Venus and the North Node, in Leo. Adding to its importance, this tight Venus/North Node conjunction is powerfully placed at the apex of the Grand Trine. And 3), there is a close trine between the Venus/North Node conjunction and Neptune in Sagittarius.

The strongly placed Venus/North Node conjunction, will solidly link the Jupiter Scorpio transit with the fateful reform work of the transit of Leo by the North Node, or what amounts to the same thing, the fateful and transformative transit of the Leo/Aquarius axis by the Moon's Nodes.

The strong Venus placement ties the effects of the Scorpio ingress chart to the fateful North Node Leo ingress. Venus's conjunction with the North Node imparts the force and flavor of a moral imperative to the transformative, forming power of Venus, deeply affecting our motivations. It's placement on the apex of the Grand Trine insures that its subtle, simple potent transformative energies will be widely and smoothly distributed through every area and level of the composite chart and related charts, and to our world. The Trine between Neptune Sagittarius and the North Node/Venus conjunction in Leo will help idealize and spiritualize the North Node/Venus energies and insure that they permeate every area and level of this chart and every aspect of our lives.

Its square relationship to Jupiter in Scorpio, its inconjunct (quincunx) relationship to Pluto in Capricorn, its trine relationship to Eris and Uranus in Aries will intensify and synergize its transformative effects.

Benevolent, expansive Jupiter in deep diving Scorpio will inject these subtle and complex Venus energies into the most deeply hidden, secret areas of consciousness. Things previously hidden will not simply be exposed, they will be bathed in corrective, uplifting, healing, Jupiterian forces.

Frankly, it would be very difficult to put the powerful and beneficial effects of these subtle, complex and energies into words.

So, Jupiter will be in Scorpio until November 18, 2018 at which point, Jupiter will move into Sagittarius, its home sign, for the full transit. When Jupiter moves into the astrological foreground, many of us think Money!

Globally, we are headed into a year of economic change and from the Grand Square in the Jupiter, Scorpio ingres chart, many of us around the world are going to have to scramble. The composite chart for the Jupiter Scorpio ingress and the US natal chart seems to point to positive economic developments. However, if you look more closely at this chart, you see that, in the US, the Jupiter Scorpio ingress will bring something different. It might or might not bring good economic news, but I think it will definitely bring deep healing and transformation.

So whatever Jupiter in Scorpio brings us this coming year, it is headed into its home sign to begin a big new global Jupiter cycle. And that suggests that the following year will begin a new Jupiter cycle during which we will experience even more complex, powerful and subtle manifestations of Jupiterian energy.

2017-11-17 A Message to Lightworkers – November 17, 2017
by Caroline Oceana Ryan

The latest guidance from the Ascended Masters, Galactics, Earth Elementals, Faery Elders, Angels and Archangels known as the Collective:

Greetings, Bringers of the New Earth!

We see that in this pre-Advent and pre-Solstice season, as some celebrate it, you are feeling not only the presence of a growing sense of Peace upon the Earth, but are requiring its demonstration in your own life, and in the world around you.

And this is powerful and important. For you are no longer in a world of extreme density, where the efforts of a few good people are scarcely seen and barely remembered.

You are now in a new vibrational setting, where those dedicated to dark deeds, to disempowering and discouraging the many, are finding themselves the ones increasingly disempowered and increasingly restrained in their efforts to promote chaos and despair.

And we are aware that such terms as “chaos” and “despair” are not positive or Truth-holding, as they carry a low vibration, and are no longer an apt description of where Earth and Her people are living, and are headed.

Yet they show all the more clearly the difference between what was the status quo on Earth, and what is increasingly becoming the status quo.

And that would be, not an unmoving or undeveloped level of hope, but an ever-developing and constantly increasing flow of inspiration—a belief in the increasing frequency of your own thoughts and feelings, and an understanding of your own co-Creating power—how much your own expectations and requirements for your world actually affect it.

We would say, that rather than all being a matter of business as usual in the White House, the Kremlin, or the many parliaments and governing councils around the world, that the Galactic presence is being increasingly felt and seen by those who presume themselves to be in positions of power.

They have been informed that they must begin now to take steps to include Galactic and interGalactic considerations into their thinking, their governing styles, their priorities, and their actions.

Though some are resisting such, adjustments are being made in the thinking of many in power, out of sheer necessity and concern for their own outcomes.

There is no denying the constant flow of ongoing movement into that which is becoming the Full Disclosure of the Galactic presence.

The parallel for the average person is an increasingly accommodation in each person's energies toward that which will assist them in communicating with other races, cultures, and civilizations, once Full Disclosure occurs.

It is already unfolding, though announcements have yet to be made in the larger sense.

This is not an overnight occurrence, nor is it taken lightly or with noninvolvement on the part of those higher beings assisting you in the Angelic realms, those on Earth with vital missions to perform, and your Galactic family members themselves.

We invite those who are a part of our Collective presence to speak to you now, with Love and compassion for all you are facing and the progress you are accomplishing, day by day:

"Greetings, Family members, Earth commanders, Angels in human form, and all assisting this rebirth of Earth civilization!

We greet you with the respect accorded your long sojourn into isolation as a planet, and all it took from you for eons, and your long sojourn out of such isolation.

All you are requiring and creating now, with Creator Source Energy behind you, is from the higher impulses of your very souls and highest aspect.

And we wish to say, do not be discouraged at those current events which appear to be displaying the various levels of corruption in your governing bodies (though they are usurpations of Earth's true governing forms) and Earth systems.

Do not feel because there are many being found now to have behaved in inhumane and unethical ways, that things are tumbling down, with no refuge or alternative sources of direction ready to replace them.

We assure you, due to NESARA law, there is a great deal in place, ready to replace these false forms and false gods, which should never have been considered authority figures or authoritative structures; they are neither.

You are coming now into that moment where you realize each person is their own Authority; all else is slavery.

And so as you shake off the chains of what feels to be an old system, but which is dissolving into No-Time as we speak, we welcome you as always into that empowerment which you were born to rediscover—except, this time, most miraculously, while in a human body.

You speak of Ascension, and we join you in celebrating that which is so quickly and powerfully drawing your planet and your individual and collective vibrations into fifth density.

Yet we would say, as we as part of the Collective have spoken of before: Do not feel that this new form of living is a far-off or not-yet-occurring reality, which you must wait or work hard for.

You step into it every moment, as you learn to honor your bodies with more fresh air and pure food and water, more time speaking with and connecting to Mother Earth, more quiet meditative states, more time spent on creative and other joyful pursuits.

You walk into it all the more fully each time you practice patience with one who is struggling or in pain, or with your own exhausted physical being, which is undergoing such drastic transformation at this time.

And do not think that we have no remedies for your pain and sadness, your confusion and overwhelm!

You are not alone in this, nor in anything you journey through.

Meditate in a way that brings you aboard one of our ships—think of someone whom you Love and trust, such as Mother Sekhmet, or Lord Kuthumi, or Lord Sananda Kumara, or Captain Ashtar, to name a few examples.

Come into one of the healing chambers on one of their ships, and ask that your mind, heart, body, and etheric energies be rejuvenated, renewed, and enlivened by the technologies there, and by the healing impulses carried there by those wishing to assist and encourage you and your soul family.

Ask for assistance in integrating the new higher energies now coming into Earth at an unprecedented rate—and we celebrate with you, that these cannot be stopped nor their flow mitigated in any way.

You have called to these beautiful frequencies of higher Light, as the Earth Herself has, as the turning cycle of the ages has likewise rung in these astounding changes, as a loud clear bell tolls the news of some great change that is undeniable, and here to stay.

Welcome, fellow travelers throughout this Universe!

You have known us before, and shall now know us again.”

And so as always, dear ones, we encourage you to lift your eyes to the skies, and ask for inner and outer evidence of that which is already being witnessed by many—the return of those family members once banned or endangered by Earth life, and now increasingly welcomed to it.

Namaste, dear ones!

We of so many planets, star systems, and Universal origins Love and are with you, always.
